

Elliptical Swing Arm Manway

The fiberglass elliptical manway serves well in applications when accessing the interior of the tank is required on a routine basis. Available with or without the swing arm, the manway measures 18" x 26" with stainless steel cover plates and an optional stainless steel swing arm assembly. The swing arm allows the inner cover to be opened, inverted and rotated out of the manway opening without manual lifting by the site personnel.

