

Duct - Fiberglass Duct Work

Palmer is a leading manufacturer of fiberglass reinforced plastic (FRP) ductwork. We offer customized FRP duct and fittings according to the specifications of your job. Corrosion-resistant and stronger than aluminum and light gage steel, FRP products serve a wide range of applications.

At Palmer, we follow industry standards during the manufacturing and installation process. We can also provide assistance for custom installation and field fabrication.

