

Sight Glasses

Materials for construction of our sight glasses range from PVC to stainless steel – whatever is needed to stand up to the chemical service of the tank. These sight glasses are offered with either flanged or threaded connections and include valves for isolation purposes.

